

Pacific Flyway Decoy Show Results for Our Carvers

Erik Westbrook, Dick Marshall, and John Gibbs had fantastic results at the Pacific Flyway Decoy Association this past weekend, July 13 & 14 in Sacramento. Here is a list of their winnings.

Dick Marshall: Open Class Carver

- Best of Show with his Ruddy Duck Drake in the class of Doubtful Antique Style.
- 2nd Best of Show with his Long Billed Curlew done with a pitchfork tine in the Doubtful Antique Style class.
- 2nd Place with his Phalarope in the open class of Smoothy Shore Bird class
- 3rd place with his sanderling in the open class of Smoothy Shore Bird class
- Honorable Mention with his antique vintage style Red Breasted shore bird in the open class of Shore Bird class

Eric Westbrook: Novice Carver

- Best of Show with his Kestrel in the Raptor Novice class
- 2nd Best of Show with his Peregrine Falcon in the Raptor Novice class
- Best of Show with his Chickadee on a wire in Songbird Novice class
- 2nd Best of Show with his Chickadee on a wood mount in Songbird Novice class

John Gibbs:

- 2nd Place with his Vintage Sanderling in the Doubtful Antique Style class
- Honorable Mention with his vintage Scaup Duck in the Double Antique Style class

— Written by Dot Rygh

